MONDAY, APRIL 9 1739.

91. 1103.

To the Author of the DAILY GAZETTEER.

SIR,

O Faction, which ever oppos'd a Ministry, ever were reduc'd to such mean, low Artifices as those Persons who are in the present Opposition. Fair Argument and cool Reasoning are things they are become in-tire Strangers to: Libels, Lampoons, low Witticisms and quaint Jokes are their whole Ambition: They think, by gaining a Smile from the laughing Part of Mankind, that their Endeavours to raise Enemies against the Government have much Force. But Men of common Sense discern Jest from Argument, and pay little Regard to such Measures and such Compositions which have only Infamy and Scandal for their Support.

Mr. Whitehead's late scandalous Pasquil receiv'd in Rife from the Influence of a discontented Party; and the panegyric Parts of it point out plainly who his Patrons were. This Man, who has more a knack of Verifying than a judicious Manner of Writing Satire, has been long very eminent for a malicious Madnes in scandalizing the highest Characters who are in the Administration: Buoy'd up with some commendatory Compliments, he ran poetically as well as poetically mad: In Playhouses he claim'd a Right of being political Censor, and he often been very noisy in his Declamations in the about the Act of Parliament for licencing Theatrical Performances: In Epigrams he has peculiarly distinguish'd himself, where the Malignity always succeeded the Wit: At Masquerades, he was sup- port'd, on strong Reasons, to be one of the principal Persons to carry on and act in some ridiculous Piece of Buffoon Mummery. I should have taken notice of such his Conduct in a more severe Man- ner, had he not already fallen under the just, tho' heavy, Censure of the Legislature.

PERSONS of the least Inclination to think seri- ously, will think the Behaviour of this Man suffi- ciently mad to deter all others from making him their Example; yet to such a stupid Frenzy does some Men's Party-Zeal carry them, that I am well in- form'd that there is a Club held every Saturday, in which Scandal and Defamation are the never failing Topics of Discourse: Healths are said to be drank, which might bring Shame and Trouble to some of the Members; others indeed have neither Shame to deter them, nor Interest to consult: The Scum of the Playhouse are all Men's Contempt. Mr. Paul Whitehead was, it seems, a Member of this infamous Society: Infamous I call it, as it deserves that Epi- thet, by brooding Scandal, and broaching Malice; for there are several Poets who belong to it, who are thought to have contributed their helping Hands and emendatory Hints to the Poem of Manners.

I have wrote this to let the witty Members of that Club know, that, if they continue such Pro- ceedings, I will expose them to the World, and am ready to enter the Lists with any one of them, to prove that, critically speaking, Mr. Whitehead's Li- bel is neither a Poem, a Satire, nor Wit, nor Com- mon Sense.

I am, SIR, Yours,

Tom's, Russel-Street,

PLAIN DEALER.

N. B. Whereas Mr. Whitehead's other Self, his Poetical and Political SOSTA, is, I just now hear, a Member of this Club of Poetical and Theatrical Male- contents, he is particularly invited to the Defence of his exil'd Brother, unless, which I much doubt, his Chirurgical Practice may prevent such a contro- versial Correspondence.

From the London Gazette.

Petersburg, March 10.

VELT Marshal Munich set out the 7th Instant in order to return to the Army he commands in the Ukraine. Lieutenant General Biron, the Duke of Courland's eldest Brother, who had asked his Discharge, is also gone back to that Army, after having received a Present of Ten Thousand Rubles from the Czarina.

On the 13th his Majesty returned to this City from the Villa of Portici, when the Court and Nobility ap- peared in great Splendor to compliment the Queen on her Recovery. On the 14th their Majesties assisted at the Te Deum, which was sung on that Occasion at the Cathedral Church, when the Guns of the Castles were fired, and Illuminations made throughout the City. On the 26th he had a private Audience of the Great Duke and Dutchess, as he had the next Day of Prince Charles of Lorain, and the Electress Dow- ager Palatine. On the 26th the Marquis Riccardi returned hither from Rome, as did M. de Kinigle from Naples, after having executed the Commissions of the Great Duke at those Courts. The same Evening a Courier was dispatched by the Great Duke to the Court of Vienna. On the 28th, the Duke Don Philip Corfini arrived here from Rome, to pay his Homage to the Great Duke, and has at the same time a Commission to settle on the Part of the Court of Rome the Ceremonial and Reception of M. Stop- pani, the Pope's Nuncio at this Court. During the Holy Week there has been no Court, their Royal Highnesses have assisted at all the publick Functions in the Churches, and on Good-Friday, according to Custom, visited on Foot seven Churches. This Morning the Great Duke and Dutchess, attended by their Great Officers, went in State to the Ca- thedral Church, and afterwards the Electress Dow- ager Palatine dined with them in Publick.

The Learned Dr. Waterland, in his late Charge, entitled, The Christian Sacrifice explain'd, Page 31. gives the following Account of our Author and his Work:

He was well read in the Eucharistick Sacrifice: No Man understood it better; and he explained the practical Uses of that Doctrine, in so clear, so lively, and so affecting a Way, that one can scarce meet with anything on the Subject that can be justly thought to exceed it. So that I could heartily join my Wishes with a late learned Writer, (Dr. Hicks) That that excellent little Book, intitled, The Christian Sacrament and Sacrifice, might be reprinted for the Honour of God and the Benefit of the Church.

The most Noble ELIXIR,
For Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Hysterick Disease or Vapours in Women.

IN three Days Time demonstrates to every one who takes it, that it is absolutely infallible for the thorough Cure of those perplexing Indispositions, even in their highest and most grievous Degree, where nothing but Horror reigns, where Reasoning is interrupted or deprav'd, and where the Mind is confus'd with terrible Perturbation, Anxieties, and Despondency, even to Distraction, and the Body afflicted with almost innumerable Ailments.

'Tis surprising to see how soon this CELEBRATED ELIXIR, (even a few Doses of it only) entirely cures all the vast Variety of Symptoms, and induces a new Train of cheerful and pleasant Ideas, instead of those deep and black Thoughts, those direful Apprehensions that so tenaciously dwell upon the soul, clouded the Understanding, and destroy'd all Notion of ever receiving Comfort again; for it occasions a Flow of undisturb'd Spirits, and causes bright Gleams of Joy to break in upon the Heart, and chase away the whole Load of depressed and melancholy Imaginations so effectually, that the Patients are suddenly reliev'd both in Body and Mind; and now enjoying perfect Health, free and lively Spirits, ready, serene, and gay Thoughts, stand as much amaz'd that they could be chain'd down to such a dismal Way of Thinking, such dreadful Fears, and dark Incumbrances, as before, they were hopeless of ever getting free from them.

In a Word, the Effect of this NOBLE ELIXIR is so suddenly and infallibly curing HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in Men, and the HYSTERICK DISEASE, or VAPOURS in Women, in all their Shapes and Appearances, even after all other Remedies have proved fruitless, is inexpressible, as the vast Numbers of both Sexes who have been perfectly cured by it, with the utmost Satisfaction declare.

It occasions no Manner of Disorder, is pleasant to take, a few Drops of it are a Dose, and is to be had only at Mr. RADEORD's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, at 1s. a Bottle, with Directions.
